

FRIENDS OF THE UNICORN

The Friends of the Unicorn Supported Employment Recognition Luncheon promoted and recognized individuals who have overcome their disability through employment. Unicorn Centers Inc. is a non-profit United Way agency that provides vocational training to adults with mental retardation. Unicorn Centers provide extended employment, life skills training and supported employment. The luncheon raises funds to provide long-term job coaching that is not funded by any agency, but critical to the success of the participants.

On the Scene Editor: Leslie Foley

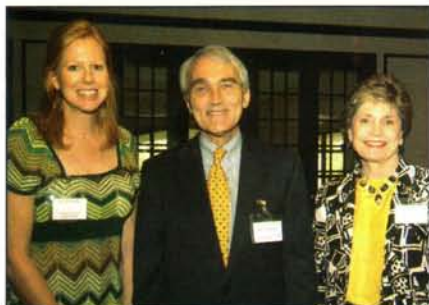

On the Scene Photographer: Vivian Crook

John Siemens and Jessica Godina

Honorary Chair Dr. Ellen Snow, Founder Edith Garwood, Joe Zertuche and Executive Director John Schwab

Margaret Gunn, Toby Summers and Suzanne Letch

Fred Hebron, Angela Ditta, Jan Curtis and Cassandra Crowe

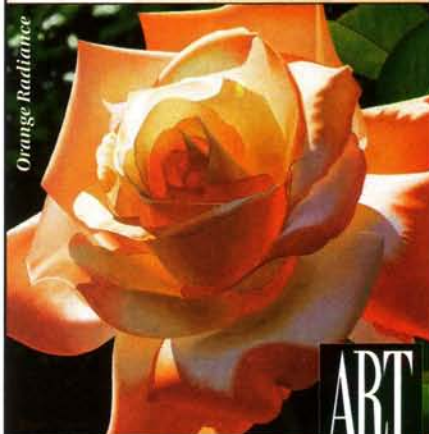

Luncheon Chair Jayne Meals, Maggie and Gordon Hartman, and Councilwoman Diane Cibrian. The Gordon Hartman family was awarded the Friends for Life Award.

"My goal is to find the most elegant way to express my subject; to discover the hidden beauty which is overlooked and bring it to light; to remind people of the magnificence of the world around us, and to express the voice inside me."

-Brian Davis

Orange Radiance

ART
INC.

Art Incorporated
9401 San Pedro
210.340.1091
800.225.0278

www.artincorporated.com

My Doll House

Doll Houses, Miniatures and Collectibles

"San Antonio's
Only
Full Service
Doll House
Store"

6000
Broadway

in Alamo Heights
Minutes from Downtown
www.my-dollhouse.com

210-930-5363

$100 off select Doll Houses with this ad.

IS THERE A PICTURE IN THIS ISSUE

YOU WOULD LIKE TO BUY?

ORDER IT TODAY!

First Picture: $19.95 each Additional photos ordered at the same time: $9.95 each

We'll provide you with a high-resolution image on a CD-Rom of most any picture(s) for your personal use. Prices include delivery via e-mail or first class mail all charges are subject to State sales tax. Your photo purchase is strictly for personal use. Any commercial use of said photo(s) or reproduction in an electronic or printed format in a for-profit medium is strictly prohibited. Not all pictures are offered for sale.